

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

PETER ROBERT POWER
‘PEBBLES’

23 FEBRUARY 1949 - 13 JANUARY 2022

*My dearest Poppy, how I will miss you.
Our endless giggles and your cheeky smile,
my memories with you will never fade.
From our traditional holiday banana split dates,
which consisted of me eating all of the ice-cream w hile you laughed at me and sipped on your coffee.
To the seemingly endless car trips to the middle of nowhere to look at lambs with the occasional stop at the Junee Liquorice Factory for some treats.
The smell of your car which had each and every animal poo smell,
it will always be embedded in my nose.
Our Bunnings trips where we'd giggle
at Grandmas' pot plant addiction and the endless life lessons you've taught me.*

The smile that never left your face is an image I will always hold close.

*Safe to say there is a Poppy sized hole in my heart.
I strive to make you proud each day,
trying my best through everything I put my mind to.
Helping put a smile on people's faces the same way you always did.
I promise to take care of mum
showing her the same endless love, you did.
I will take care of my cousins, teaching the little ones
all the wisdom you've taught me, showing them
there is always a reason to smile.
I will miss you every day but know you will be watching me from above.
I have my own angel watching over me
and I'm proud to say he is my Poppy.*

*I love you always my Poppy.
Forever in our hearts.*
